

Daily Planet

Customer and Employee Relations Directorate,
Internal Relations and Communications Department

Tuesday, Sept. 24

2002

Adena Loston appointed NASA senior advisor for education

Dr. Adena Williams Loston has been appointed as senior advisor for education at NASA Headquarters. Loston is president of San Jacinto College South in Houston. In her new position, she will be responsible for guiding NASA's efforts to organize and enhance its education program. "We have a responsibility to enlighten and inspire a new generation of scientists, engineers and technologists," said NASA Administrator Sean O'Keefe. "Adena is uniquely qualified to advise us on this important endeavor."

The Core Financial Operational Readiness Review (ORR) for the Marshall Center was completed Sept. 19. 'Go-live' for the system is scheduled for the week of Oct. 21

Space Shop sale through Wednesday in Bldg. 4203. Save 20 percent on all in-stock items

Redstone Arsenal conducting fire and emergency training

Redstone Arsenal Fire and Emergency Services will be conducting live fire training Tuesday and possibly Wednesday and Thursday. Brief periods of dark smoke and flames may be visible during the training northeast of Redstone Airfield.

Travel information available

Authorizations for travel beginning in fiscal year 2002 should have been completed. Do not enter any authorizations for travel beginning in fiscal year 2003 until you have received a new travel URL, which is expected by Sept. 30. For information, see "Inside Marshall" or call 544-7312.

Voice mail repairs to be completed by noon Tuesday. For more information, see 'Inside Marshall'

<http://inside.msfc.nasa.gov>